

Voluntary Summer homework 2021 2nd BACH :

. Read “The Growing Pains of Adrian Mole” by Sue Townsend,
Ed: Burlington ISBN : 978 – 9963- 46 -145- 5
There will be an exam about this book at the end of September or beginning of October.

As Voluntary Summer homework:

. the students willing to work on LIVING ENGLISH 1 workbook will have to do all the EXAM PRACTICES (from page 88 to p95 : 8 exam practices altogether) to get 0,5 points added to the first Reading Test.

. Besides this, in order to keep your English alive and fluent, I would advise you to enjoy watching films, documentaries or videos in English every day as well as reading articles from papers or magazines online . If you feel like doing any writings during the summer about them, it will be warmly welcome . It is advisable since it is a good way to practise compositions and keep your English fluent. You will get extra 0,5 points added to the first Reading Test for writing about either films or articles (at least 4 writings)

Both tasks are voluntary, but you can get 1 point on your first test in September by doing both tasks or 0,5 if doing only one of the two.